City Launches Proposed 2019 Bond Program Informational Website

New Braunfels, TX — New Braunfels residents have a new way to learn about the proposed 2019 Bond Program with the launch of a website dedicated to keeping citizens informed throughout the process –

www.NBBond2019.com.

Data about upcoming meetings, copies of presentations from previous meetings, lists of potential projects under consideration and a roster of committee members is available. An inter-active map showing locations for potential projects, as well as links to a number of master plans and feasibility studies relevant to the potential projects, provide useful information as well.

The proposed 2019 Bond Program development process:

January – March 2018

BAC develops recommend projects list for City Council

April – September 2018

Council selected projects to undergo preliminary engineer and evaluation

September – October 2018

BAC receives projects preliminary engineering reports and evaluations and finalizes 2019 Bond Program recommendations for City Council

October 2018 – February 2019

City Council finalizes the 2019 Bond Program projects and call for a May 2019 election

As the process progresses and moves through different stages, the website will be continually updated, and citizens are encouraged to check in frequently to keep abreast of the current status in its development.
