Donegan Advances to the 2019 PGA Professional Championship

New Braunfels, TX – Chad Donegan, PGA Director of Golf at Landa Park Golf Course at Comal Springs, advanced to the PGA Professional Championship on August 29, 2018. The championship will be contested April 28 – May 1, 2019, at Belfair in Bluffton, South Carolina.

“We are so proud of Chad,” said Stacey Dicke, Parks and Recreation Director. “We can’t wait to cheer him on at the PGA Professional Championship.”

According to Kailee Neumann of PGA Southern Texas, the 54-hole qualifying event was the final of five individual stroke play championships that comprise the OMEGA Player of the Year Points List. The Championship was held at Victoria Country Club, a 6,870-yard, par 72 layout, which played as a par 71 at 6,856-yards for this week’s Championship. For more information visit stpga.com.
