New Braunfels, Texas — On today's date (06-06-19), at approximately 2:10am, the New Braunfels Police Department was called to the Texaco gas station location in the 1100 block of I-35 North for a report of an aggravated robbery. A search of the area by responding officers was unsuccessful in locating the suspect.

The suspect is described as a black male, approximately 5-feet 3-inches tall with a slender build wearing a gray pullover sweatshirt on top of a separate blue and white striped hoodie with the hood covering his head. The suspect, who is said to be approximately 30-years old, also wore dark-colored knit jogging pants, and all white low-top Nike tennis shoes.
